JOINT STIPULATION IN RESPONSE
TO JANUARY 16, 2014 ORDER
AND ORDER THEREON

All of the parties, specifically the United States of America (“United States”), Joseph M. and Jana M. Cosby (“the Defendants”), and defendant James B. Nutter & Company, respectfully respond to the Court’s January 16, 2014 order as follows:

The parties stipulate and agree that their Joint Stipulation as to Liability and Entry of Judgment (ECF No. 26) should be construed as effective in resolving all claims brought by the United States in this action, that the Fourth Claim for Relief asserted in the Complaint should be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Rule 41(a)(2), and that the case should be closed.

DATED this 17th of January, 2014.

Respectfully submitted,¹

¹ Counsel for the Defendants authorized the United States to file this joint stipulation on January 17, 2014.

ORDER

THE COURT HAVING READ the foregoing Joint Stipulation of the parties in response to this Court's Order to Show Cause filed on January 16, 2014 (ECF No. 28), hereby makes the following findings:

THE COURT FINDS in accordance with the stipulation of the parties, that Plaintiff, United States of America, and Defendants, Joseph M. Cosby and Jana M. Cosby, and James B. Nutter & Company, have agreed that their Joint Stipulation as to Liability and Entry of Judgment (ECF No. 26) should be construed as effective in resolving all claims brought by the United States in this action.

THE COURT FURTHER FINDS in accordance with the stipulation of the parties that the Fourth Claim for Relief asserted in the Complaint (ECF No. 1) should be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Rule 41(a)(2).

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the parties' Joint Stipulation as to Liability and Entry of Judgment (ECF No. 26) resolves all claims brought by the United States in this action.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Fourth Claim for Relief asserted in the Complaint (ECF No. 1) is hereby DISMISSED without prejudice.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of Court shall close this case.

DATED this 20th day of June, 2014.

Gloria M. Navarro, Chief Judge
United States District Court
